response message containing network settings, including a physical network address, received by the applet from at least one such network appliance responsive to the query message; and a configuration module generating and sending a configuration packet using the physical network address for each at least one such network appliance sending a response message and requiring configuration.

Moreover, the invention in the above patent application was conceived to include at least one network appliance sending a response message containing network settings responsive to a query message broadcast over a specified network domain within which the at least one network appliance operates; a configuration client generating a configuration package for the at least one network appliance and containing centrally managed network settings customized for the at least one network appliance; and a bootstrap module on the at least one network appliance installing the configuration package as part of an initialization bootstrap operation, as well as other claimed features, as well as other claimed features.

From this statement and attached exhibit, it is clear that the invention in this application was made at a date prior to June 25, 2001.
